PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil action for damages brought pursuant to redress the deprivation by defendants of the rights secured to plaintiff under the Constitution and laws of the United States and State of New York. The defendants, upon information & belief, without a warrant and without probable cause, unlawfully arrested and falsely imprisoned the plaintiff DESMOND HUNTE on two(2) separate occasions in the year 2010.. The plaintiff was falsely arrested on or about November 28, 2010 and wrongfully charged with violation of New York State Penal Law 221.10 under Kings County Criminal Court docket number 2010KN094068. On March 13, 2012 the matter was dismissed before the Hon. Kevin McGrath in Kings County Criminal Court BTP-2.. On or about December 18, 2010 the plaintiff was again arrested and charged with violation of New York State Penal Law 170.20 and other related charges..He was falsely arrested and wrongfully incarcerated under Kings County Criminal Court docket number 2010KN099354 The matter was also dismissed on March 13, 2012 before the Hon. Kevin McGrath in Kings County

Criminal Court, Part BTP- 1. He suffered wrongful incarceration and serious and severe psychological injuries, the full nature and extent have yet to be determined.. The plaintiff did not consent to the confinement on any of the aforementioned two occasions and it was not otherwise privileged.. By the filing of this complaint, the plaintiff now alleges that the City of New York & the New York City Police Department violated his rights under 42 USC Section 1983, the 4th Amendment of the United States Constitution and New York State law. In addition, the plaintiff invokes the pendant jurisdiction of this court to assert claims arising under state law

2. That the jurisdiction of this Court is invoked under the provisions of Section 1331 & 1343 of Title 28 and Sections 1983 & 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code . Plaintiff further invokes the supplemental jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to 28 USC Section 1367 to hear and decide their New York State Law claims of false arrest, false imprisonment and the intentional and negligent infliction of mental & emotional distress against the individual defendant police officers. These state law claims form part of the same case and controversy as plaintiff's federal claims under Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Because plaintiff's state law claims are brought only against the individual defendant police officers and allege intentional conduct, no notice of claim is required. In suits against municipal or county employees, as opposed to suit against municipalities themselves, " service of the notice of claim upon the public corporation shall be required only if the corporation has a statutory obligation to indemnify such person under this chapter or any other provision of law" N.Y. Gen. Mun. Law Section 50- e (1) n(b)

4. The acts complained of above are not an isolated incident. They are part of a pattern of abuse by the New York City Police Department in Kings County and elsewhere of false arrests, particularly against minorities. The motivation includes but is not limited to obtaining overtime compensation, the statistical needs of the NYPD, and other improper motives.
